

Eternity was born in the village – Reflections on rural spirituality in Transylvania

The soul of the village stirs deep within

Eternity was born in the village

It is a silent land

The deeper layers of history

Severe test under communism

Denominational differences remain cultural resources

Diversity is not a threat, but a strength

Thank you